PRESS RELEASE No. 2015/08

September 30, 2015

2nd* JARUS Plenary meeting of 2015

7 to 11 September

Beijing – China

We are pleased to announce that the 2nd JARUS Plenary meeting of 2015 took place at the Conference Centre at Beihang University in Beijing from the 7th to the 11th of September.

JARUS members from 24 nations gathered for five successful days of working group and plenary meetings. States and organisations at the meeting included: Brazil, China, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Republic of Korea, Russia, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom, USA and organisations such as EASA and EUROCONTROL.

Each of the working groups progressed their work plans, including how to address the concept for a regulatory framework proposed by JARUS working group 7 and already included in EASA's recent A-NPA. Working group 1 proposed the publication of its flight crew licensing at the plenary meeting. Working group 5 is in the final step to publish a regulatory assessment of CPDLC for RPAS and is progressing in C2 link performance concepts and aeronautical information for RPAS. WG 5 agreed to develop a general policy paper dealing with VLOS/BVLOS high level requirements with a focus on the C2 link for class A and B categories.

* Note that there are two JARUS plenary meetings every year. This press release is about the 2nd meeting held in 2015.

The Plenary approved publications. Other highlights from the plenary meeting to point out were:

- New JARUS website to be published shortly. The new site will be upgraded with user-friendly navigation and probe functionality.
- JARUS progressed the development of Terms of Reference for its Stakeholder Consultative Body to increase Industry consultation in JARUS work activities. An agreement with the Industry Stakeholders will be finalised shortly to establish a strong and continuing relationship with Industry.
- The next plenary meeting will take place in Madrid from the 11th to the 15th of April 2016.
